

Kentucky Now Offering Pro-face!

October 2013 Advantage Industrial Automation is proud to announce that we now provide Pro-face products to our customers in Kentucky. Pro-face is a leading global supplier of a broad range of industrial automation hardware and software solutions. Their principal products include the Pro-face brand operator interfaces, HMI software, and industrial computers. Pro-face offers dedicated and PC-based, open-architecture, visualization and control solutions.

The Pro-face North America office is headquartered in Ann Arbor, Michigan at their state of the art facility. Pro-face America is supported by 17 major offices and over 1200 representatives around the world. In 2012, Pro-face adopted a new logo and tag line, along with a ring of color that represents their continued efforts towards customer care and innovative technology.
